SÃO PAULO CAMPUS

São Paulo Campus

The city of São Paulo is South America's largest financial and business hub. It is also a well-known hotspot for technological excellence and start-ups. If these factors alone are major draws, imagine being able to rely on the resources of the Latin America Leader in Data Center Infrastructure and Connectivity.

Now it's easy to understand why the Ascenty Data Center Campus in São Paulo is the top choice for domestic and international companies.

NAP: an important node for content exchange

The São Paulo Campus has a unique advantage: it is home to Brazil's newest NAP (Network Access Point). The NAP provides customers with quick and easy access to top content from around the world. This is because it allows them to link up to all major domestic and international carriers, Internet Service Providers (ISPs) and public clouds.

The benefits of NAP for enterprises

- 100% carrier-neutral data center infrastructure;
- Easy access to top global content;
- High performance and low latency;
- Easy access to all major domestic and international carriers;
- Interconnection with Ascenty ecosystem, no local POP required.
